

. This Company Application has been filed for restoring the earlier Company Application No.76 of 2005 which was dismissed since the affidavit of service was not filed by a particular date in the Registry. By a common order passed on 16th June 2005 the Applicants were required to file their affidavit by 24th June 2005 after payment of costs by 20th June 2005. The Petition was to stand dismissed if the stipulations in the order were not complied. It appears that when this common order was passed in the morning in various other matters as well, nobody was present for the Applicants when this order was passed. However, it appears that the Applicants have now filed the affidavit of service and paid costs as per the directions contained in the order dated 16th June 2005.

2. For the reasons set out in the affidavit in support of the Company Application, Company Application allowed. Company Application No.76 of 2005 restored to file.

3. Company Application disposed of accordingly.
